An evening to discuss funerals.

Revd Dr David Primrose, Director of Transforming Communities in Lichfield Diocese, will be with us to talk through organising funerals for our departed loved ones, and our own.

Many of us know how difficult arranging a funeral can be when we are bereaved. As well as having to find a funeral director and venue for the service, we may be unsure about what our loved one would have wanted included in a service that is about them.

Those who will arrange our funeral can face the same dilemma, so we will hear how we can make a positive difference at the time of our death by our forward planning.

This is our opportunity to discuss and learn how the Church of England can help at this painful time, and also what we can do to ease the burden for those who will organise our funerals.
